10:00 The Curious Leader: Developing team members through questions, not answers.

Sarah Noll Wilson

What if a leader's job wasn't to just drive process efficiency but to build self-efficacy in others? To shift from telling towards discovery? To help people create solutions instead of solving the problems for them? According to the results of a multi-year study on management at Google, the single most important managerial competency that separates highly effective managers from average ones is coaching.
